Dear Alan,

Many thanks for your letter of 31st January regarding my visit to you. I am most grateful for all the arrangements which you are making for me and it is particularly kind of [Redacted] to reserve accommodation for me in the Army Navy Club, which I much appreciate.

I had hoped to be able to tell you of the exact time of my arrival in Washington but at the moment I am not quite sure what this will be. However, I hope to be there sometime during the evening of the 14th and I will make contact with you then.

STAT

Yours sincerely,

J.T. Campbell
